

Thanksgiving and Christmas Assistance Program: Any individuals desiring to donate money, food or gift items to needy families should contact the local DSS for information about how they may help. Any individuals or families desiring to participate in the program should also contact the local DSS office for information about how to apply for assistance.